Adam Rhine has been creating ornate, highly detailed Judaic watercolor paintings since 1999. His style is heavily influenced by medieval illuminated manuscripts, and he combines that inspiration with modern palettes and aesthetics. Rhine's book, Hebrew Illuminations, is a collection of all 22 Hebrew illuminated letters as well as 22 of his most well-known Magen David paintings. It also includes never-before-seen art from his sketchbook and text descriptions of the meaning behind each design. Rhine's artwork illustrates the covers and chapters in the three-book educational series Celebrating the Jewish Year by Paul Steinberg.

I love this calendar series because it helps me understand and participate in the feasts and festivals of my ancestors. It is beautifully done, and aids in my study of the original commands of God.

Beautiful illustrations. The spaces are large enough to keep track of daily events.

I was invited to a Shabbat dinner and was looking for an appropriate hostess gift. The calendar was perfect and greatly appreciated. My friends liked it so much they plan to frame some of the monthly images. Thank you, Debbie in FL

Beautiful artwork. Good continuation of the creation calendar for people that want to know how time was traditionally kept from the beginning of Genesis to now by Hebrew people. If only the Egyptians and other civilizations had such a calendar system for dating their beginning for comparison....oh well. All the traditional Biblical holidays from Exodus and more are included. I love the scripture and monthly affirmations. Monthly moon phases and eclipses are also included which is coinciding with the lunar/solar month authenticity.

Love these calendars. I get them every year. The boxes are the perfect size for writing in important dates and appointments. Beautiful artwork.

My mother loved this calendar it has beautiful pictures

Great Gregorian/Hebrew calendar

missing Israel Yom HaShoa and some other comm. events
