I hate playing along with a CD. Seems stupid to buy something like this hoping to learn the theme songs to favorite movies, and then find that only three of the themes are recognizable - and even then those are full of gaps where the CD takes over!

I started playing trombone to help my son who started in band. Guess who stuck with it. As I improved I was looking for something more enjoyable than just the lesson book. There are various skill levels in this book, and is quite enjoyable to play!

Our adult son who seldom gets to play his trombone plays the CD and plays along as he reads the music. It was one of his favorite Christmas presents.
