Customer Reviews

I have been a reader and a fan of Sammy Franco's books for quite some time. His "Widow Maker" series literally changed my life and gave me a confidence and skill set that I never knew existed. I have started doing some heavy bag training at home this year and his book by the same name went a long way towards getting me started with this. This book, "Heavy Bag Combinations", takes things to the next level with an awesome array of heavy bag workout combinations that are both well explained and accompanied by detailed photographs. I loved these workouts, the way that they are making me feel, and I couldn't do it without Franco's guidance.

This has good pictures. I guess I was more advanced than I thought. I didn't get much from this book.

Good book with lots of good combinations and pictures of how to do the techniques correctly. At the end, there's a list of 57 combinations, broken out by beginner, intermediate and advanced, and those several pages were the crux of the book to me. There explanations of how to do each punch (lead jab, rear cross, lead hook, rear uppercut, lead uppercut and rear hook). I like how he uses "rear" instead of "right" because a left-handed reader might get confused.

great book for beginners . alot of useful information

Great book full of insightful and informative information! Very pleased .
