FOR ALL READERS FOUND AT THE END OF THE BOOK

So you're thinking about purchasing or adopting a puppy, or you've already done so and you need more information on how to housetrain your puppy. First and foremost, congratulations on the decision to purchase a new family member! Puppies are adorable, fun, and they will grow up to be a loving companion. However, with a puppy comes responsibility. One of those responsibilities is teaching your puppy the proper place for it to do its business. Depending on your puppy's age, they will need to go to the bathroom every hour to every four hours during the day, and every three to eight hours during the night. But there's so much more to puppy housetraining than just when to take them out! In this book, you will learn how to understand your puppy's needs and how to train them, as well as the small nuances that go along with puppy training, such as how to startle a puppy rather than frighten it.
