Customer Reviews

Be careful when you order. You may be ordering a hymnal that has no music notes in it (just words). Of course that is OK if you don't sing parts (like tenor).IMHO:having used this a lot, it is basically a translation/adaptation of the (old fogey) in-English Baptist hymnal. It is not bad, but the music is not much hispanic, and the tunes generally lack the beauty of the best contemporary Christian music. I would not choose this for my church's hymnal. But since my pastor liked it, who am I to quarrel over music style? It does praise the Lord.

Traditional hymns in Spanish. The paper is poor quality but the content is there. I wanted something that had the Spanish lyrics of the English Baptist Hymnal. This was the only option that fit the bill. Also, the print and pages are a little smaller than various English hymnals I use for reference. That said, a decent reference but I would hope that a Spanish Language publisher would put out an updated version with better print and paper.

excellent product

excelente

This version has the piano music and chord notation. I enlarge the pages to make it easier to read.
Gracias Señor, Amen...

Gracias

What a blessing.

While the content is fine, and comprehensive, the binding material is cheap, this hymnal is not going to last long over time..
