In Flight (Up In The Air Book 1)

Synopsis

When reserved flight attendant Bianca gets one look at billionaire hotel owner James Cavendish, she loses all of her hard-won composure. For a girl who can easily juggle a tray of champagne flutes at 35,000 feet in three inch heels, she finds herself shockingly weak-kneed from their first encounter. The normally unruffled Bianca can't seem to look away from his electrifying turquoise gaze. They hold a challenge, and a promise, that she finds impossible to resist, and she is a girl who is used to saying no and meaning it. Bianca is accustomed to dealing with supermodels and movie stars in her job as a first class flight attendant, but James Cavendish puts them all to shame in the looks department. If only it were just his looks that she found so irresistible about the intimidating man, Bianca could have ignored his attentions. But what tempts her like never before is the dominant pull he seems to have over her from the moment they meet, and the promise of pleasure, and pain, that she reads in his eyes. This book is intended for ages 18 and up.

4.5 stars! Bianca is a flight attendant working with her best friend Stephan. The two bounded as orphaned children and have been inseparable since then. When first class passenger James Cavendish takes an interest in Bianca, she's not quite sure what to think. Bianca has a troubled past and for that reason keeps everyone at arms distance except Stephan. With her friend's encouragement, Bianca strikes up an "arrangement" with James, AKA, Mr Beautiful. It seems he's a kinky billionaire, lol. They enter into a BDSM, Dom/Sub relationship. When Bianca is blindsided by James' past, she runs...smack dab into her own past. Well, this one was kind of wild, lol. The first half of the book was a little slow for me. Bianca seems to have some self esteem/self worth issues that prevent her from seeing what others may see in her, which hinders her relationship with James. James kind of comes off needy from the get go, which was not the way I expected him to act. It seems he's found a gem in Bianca and he's not used to not getting what he wants. The second half of the book hooked me. It was very exciting and I was left immediately wanting to read book 2.

I was surprised to find that I was not very engrossed in this story as I thought I would be. I did not connect with either of the main characters. That could be that it took a long time for the characters to open up to one another. We didn't slowly find out about Bianca and James' past and it left me less involved in their story. I will say that I really enjoyed the ending of this book. What started out as an instant attraction that led to a very intense sexual relationship between flight attendant Bianca and billionaire James Cavendish slowly turns into something much more. But before anything can be made of what that serious meaning behind their relationship can be explored things start to fall apart for the couple. This book is like your typical BDSM story. I just did not connect with the characters. But the ending made for what the main part of the story was lacking for me. I am not in a rush to continue with the series, but I will eventually because I do think it will get better.

I read the books last year but never left a review. I recently purchased the audio version for my long car rides to work so I thought I would review both the book and the audio. This book series is my favorite series out of everything I have read. I keep thinking another series will come along and top this but that hasn't happened yet. The biggest reason I am so in love with this series is James and Bianca, the MC's. I absolutely love James devotion to Bianca in this series. I tend to lean more to the instant love, strong alpha stories and this has both. You don't realize how devoted James is in the beginning of this first book but it becomes pretty obvious the more you read. I'm a really big fan of Bianca's character as well. I don't particularly love it when authors have the females role chase the men, especially when they forgive too much with other women drama, so when I find a female character that demands respect, I'm thrilled. Don't get me wrong, this series is a Dominant/Submissive series, however, the way RK Lilley wrote Bianca, she is a submissive but still expects to be treated respectfully. Bianca has not had good male role models in her life so she is very aloof with male attention. I like that James has to work for her affection. I'm not very educated on the BDSM lifestyle and I'm actually not that much of a fan. I prefer just a dominant male in my stories but the fact that this series has BDSM and I still love it just proves to me how really good this series is. Now for the audio review. I have just recently started listening to Audio books so I don't have too much reference to pull from but this is the third narrator I have listened too and she has been my favorite so far. In my other experience, I didn't really like the woman impersonating the male voices but this narrator did a much better job. She has also had to do 2 accents in this first book and I can't find fault in either accent. Really good job! If I could give this book more than 5 Stars, I would!

I heard about this series from a friend. I was not disappointed. Bianca has been on the run since she was 14. Her best friend, Stephen, she met on the street. They have been together and best friends ever since. James Cavendish is a rich playboy who likes BDSM. He meets Bianca and the fireworks start. She calls him Mr. Beautiful. Well, because he is.... Bianca meets James while she is a flight attendant working with her best friend Stephen. Mr. Cavendish is on the plane. When unruly men start messing with Bianca his protectiveness steps in. Stephen tells James what bar they will be at after the flight. James has to see her, be with her so he goes. As he approaches he hears Bianca call him Mr. Beautiful to her friends. She says Hello Mr. Cavendish without turning. His response: "I told you to call me James. Or Mr. Beautiful if you prefer. You can save the Mr. Cavendish for when we're in private." Okay, from that statement you know where this leads..... Bianca knows James doesn't date..he told her he has arrangements. Bianca isn't looking for an arrangement or relationship. Can James change her mind? They both have pasts that are not good. Can they be good for each other? When Bianca's past comes back and hurts her, James is distraught. He tries to tell her how much she means to him but she doesn't believe it. She tells him she needs time. Bianca knows what she has to do now after the attack. What will happen? Will James win her heart? Only way to find out is to read! The 2nd and 3rd books are out. If you are like me, after reading this one you will be right onto the next! I read a lot and search for books that look good on and from Twitter recommendations. I don't read all the reviews, hate when know what's going to happen. It's seems I give 5 stars a lot, well I guess that's because the books I pick are sooo good.
