Customer Reviews

This book made me realize that I am blessed to have the husband that I have. We've been together 5 years but married only a year. It's been rocky lately, but I now realize how special our relationship is. Thank you for opening my eyes and my heart.

I enjoyed both of these books and the ending was good for all.

This book ministered to me God has his hand all over this author. He has given her so amazing things to write about. They are fictions but true life stories all wrapped up together. It's a must read.

Great book as always

Supposed to be Large Print but it is not! False Advertising.

I loved the way everything tied together and it all worked together for all parties involved.

Pretty good, but it had some slow parts.

I read PART ONE and was satisfied. The finale/PART TWO did not disappoint. Bentley is just like many people; sins have landed him in sticky situations but God's grace has given him second chances to get it right with Nylah. Sad to see this series end but can't wait to read more from this author. That ending wasn't expected!!! Classic, clean, and wholesome Christian fiction!
