Customer Reviews

"A handy recipe guide that offers a cornucopia of ideas for those with a hungry tribe to feed."

---Library Journal"“There are good reasons that the blog Six Sisters’ Stuff continues to gain readers and its sixth cookbook will do the same. Recipes are truly time savers...the "Cooking Hacks" section enumerates some quite clever tips and techniques. Even better, none of the recommendations harms the tastiness of the original dish....Bound-to-please classic dishes...Familiarity breeds comfort.” ---Booklist"“Beautifully illustrated...A pleasure to browse through and inspiring to plan menus with..absolutely 'kitchen cook friendly' in organization and presentation. Will prove to be an enduringly popular addition to personal, family, and community library cookbook collections.” ---Midwest Book Review

The Six Sisters, Camille, Kristen, Elyse, Stephanie, Lauren, and Kendra, started their blog in 2011 to keep in touch after they moved out of their house and started lives and families on their own. In just a few years, it has become one of the top blog sites for women with millions of visitors each month, sharing stories of family, recipes, and tips for running a home. The sisters live in the Southwest and Midwest.

This is one of the only cookbooks I use now--very practical and the recipes use commonly used items to make great food! The meals planned in this particular book are planned with a side dish and dessert, which go great together. The price is fantastic for what you get!!

I loved the selections of recipes. They look relatively easy to make and the ingredients are simple and most of the items you have on hand. Can't wait to try the ones I've already book marked!

My favorite cookbook! Makes dinners and meal planning easy! Would highly recommend it for anyone especially for a beginner like me!

To be honest, I haven't been able to thoroughly check this book out but upon my initial leafing through it, I am excited to try quite a few of the recipes.

I love the food in this cookbook. Easy meals, fast meals, and the meals use ingredients you already own. No more looking at a cookbook and then driving to the store to buy the ingredients.

Once again this is a really good cookbook for busy families that want simple yummy meals. So many cookbooks have hard to find or expensive ingredients but not Six Sisters!

I just love this cook book. I just started at the beginning and am still going strong. The recipies are easy and don't take lots of different and unusual items. Even my husband likes the recipies. I bought one for each of my children. With girls busy lives they like the book too.

This is my favorite. cookbook. ever. Its become the only one I ever pull out these days. All the meals are staples in this household! Each and ever meal turns out delicious! I look forward to trying their other books, but can't recommend this one enough! I've even bought additional copies as gifts!!
