Customer Reviews

This book is very fun to play and well written. The skill level was perfect for me. I am an experienced trumpet player and I played the majority of the music correctly with sightreading, but I still need some more practice until I can play the songs perfectly. Some songs are in slightly different keys than I've heard in recordings, but it provides more playing ease without it necessarily being easier (the high notes are still high). Not much dynamic contrast is featured in some songs, but I believe this was intended so you can imitate whichever recording you like most, which is for me, the newer movie. The rhythms also vary slightly, so I simply wrote in my own preferable rhythms. I also really like that there aren't short-cuts in the songs that I was expecting; it's the whole song through and through. As far as the songs themselves, they are beautiful. I will be buying more Hal Leonard books.

Really good book

Ideal for 2nd year student +

My daughter bought this book for my son for his birthday, because "If he is going to blast music with his trumpet, at least it will be music I like!" He says that the book is well written. After a few days, he can play a song without too much trouble, even with only one year of playing at school.
