My son is in love with the Veggie Tales series. This book is great and there is also a movie that matches it. These books are great stories and usually have a great moral to learn. Highly recommend.

Genuinely shocked by the moral of this story. Literally, it says not to do something if it's too much work! I was really beside myself while reading it and returned it. It's a great story if you want your child to grow up with zero ambition and sit around eating pizza all day.

Though it says beginning reader, it is more like a level 2 book. However, my daughter (6) loves these books so she will pick them up more often than others. The great message and scripture makes it a mom favorite too.

We love veggietales and this didn't disappoint!

My son loved it.

Great condition!
