Live Well In Rio De Janeiro: The Untourist Guide

Synopsis

This book is not another guidebook for the casual tourist on vacation. Rather, it was written for those who will be staying in Rio for an extended period of time. It dives deeper than tourist guides and focuses on aspects of Rio of importance to residents. In particular, it focuses on living affordably in Rio. This guidebook is full of practical information gleaned from five years of living in Rio. This guide was designed to be concise and actionable. It takes you from planning your trip, through arrival, getting oriented, and beyond. It will help you to avoid common mistakes and to gain the most enjoyment from your stay in The Marvelous City.

Customer Reviews

I have lived in Rio for over 20 years & found this guide useful and accurate , For a new comer a must read . Rio is a beautiful but complicated place , this book would help anyone immensely . so I recommend it , Gerald

A comprehensive guide to living in Rio written by an author who obviously knows the city very well!
A must read before (and during) your stay in Brasil.
