Warning - For adults only! I am a big fan of Lilt Kids Coloring Books for a lot of reasons - high quality, variety, great illustrations, etc. But let's be very clear - this is NOT a kids coloring book - that just happens to be the name of the company. In this publication Lilt Kids Coloring Books has created a product for a very special market - adults who want something a bit racier and naughtier than your standard coloring book. If you are at all offended by off-color language, then I encourage you to pass this one by and check out one of their standard coloring books. However, if you are looking for a coloring book that will allow you to very colorfully and artfully express your frustrations and you aren't offended by swearing or foul language, then "No F*'s Given" may be just the coloring book you have been looking for. It's hard not to smile while coloring these beautiful images that carry off-color epithets, name calling, and insults. It would also make a great gift for your most foul mouthed friends. As with most of the Lilt Kids Coloring books has a couple of bonus things that I really like: There are 2 pages for "color testing" that have small boxes so you can check your marker color before you commit to coloring your image. It's nice to have that in the book instead of having to search for scrap paper every time. They also include bonus images from other coloring books in their series - plus mini images of the covers that can also be colored. While I received a complimentary copy of this book in exchange for an honest, unbiased review I am happy to say I would definitely buy it again for myself or as a gift for someone else.

I am having so much fun with this adult coloring book. I love the sayings and have actually laughed out loud at some of them. Great book for those with an open mind.
