Customer Reviews

Our Godchild is a future zoo keeper at the age of 9. We try to find him books he'll love. this fits the bill. He said it is the best book ever. Actually we thought it could very well be a reference book for adults.

My five years old son is absolutely exited about this book. It is well organised and very informative for children as well as for the adults. We sped great times reading new things about the animals of the world. My son likes sometimes just to watch the pictures and the book is used a lot. MY only critique: I would wish to have a hard cover for such a book. Unfortunately the cover is very sensitive.
