"Illustrator, Margot Rogers' strong lines and muted, elegant colors bring Destiny to life on the page -- a spirited, comely greyhound with a tender heart and wistful hope -- she is unforgettable."-Cynthia Linkas, Published Poet
"A heartwarming and beautifully illustrated story about friendship and freedom."-Rachel Blair, Educator"A charming story that warms the heart and opens the mind to the plight of greyhound dogs."-Elisabeth Evans, Montessori Educator

We created this book not only as a beautiful story of one greyhound's escape, but also a story of how we can each make a difference. Please share widely with your family, friends, teachers and shelters to help us in our mission to increase animal adoption and end greyhound racing.

Cute story that shows kids that greyhounds don't all want to race. Libraries should get a copy of this book. Illustrations are beautiful.

For children who love animals this story will open their hearts even wider. May even give the world a few more very needed rescue organizations.

Lovely illustrations and easy for young children to follow.

I was hoping for a beautiful children's book on greyhound adoption and all I read was anti racing propaganda. So sad to read the lies. Thank goodness it was free.

A sweet story that will send the kids to bed appreciating their pets, and their parents.

Beautiful art work and a nice story for kids.

A charming little story with delightful illustrations. My daughter will love it when we read it this evening!

Sweet story, and I absolutely love the illustrations!
