Living In Guatemala, 2017 Edition: Antigua, Lake Atitlán And Other Expat Hot Spots

Synopsis

Thinking about moving to Guatemala? Thousands already have, from the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Holland and many other countries. What would cause people from all over the globe to choose to move to a third World Country? There are many answers- great weather, friendly people, low cost-of-living are just a few. But it's a very personal decision, and an important one. Before you pick up your life and move to another country, get the facts. This book will tell you everything you need to know to make a smart decision and will help you settle down and enjoy life when you get to your new home.

Customer Reviews

Wish this book had been available 5 years ago when I decided to move to Guatemala. After living there 3 years I can attest that this book does the best job I've seen of introducing the country to the reader. It tells enough of each region and city to allow one to find out if they wish to visit and where to go if so. One of the best things I like is that it is an enjoyable read since it does not bog the reader down in minutia, but is FULL of references to websites for specific information including many government sites, classified ad sites, and social networking sites for meeting and questioning other expats. BUY IT if you're even thinking of visiting much less moving there.

This book is well-written and contains a lot of good information for those thinking of living in Guatemala. I'm an ex-pat from the US, and wish I had been able to access all this information before I moved here 11 years ago. The author definitely knows his material and presents it in a useful way.

Very helpful. Very informative. I spend one month a year in Guatemala. This helps. Because things can change from year-to-year.

I will absolutely be using this as a reference as I plan my escape...thanks for making this available and at a price someone considering such a move can afford..

This book was perfect for our needs: helpful, informative, and an easy read. Definitely recommended for anyone interested in the area, either thinking of going, or looking for more information. It has everything we were wondering about, and lots more!

Filled with invaluable information that will save tons of wasted time and money. Great synopsis of all the choices as to where to visit and perhaps live.

A well put together book detailing what you need to know about living in Guatemala.

Great resource for those considering moving to Guatemala. Full of tips and insight on where to go, what to do, and how to prosper in Guatemala.
