Customer Reviews

Wife loves it. It's a bit dated, as many new colors have come out since it's been printed, but its primary focus is on the older fiestaware. I'm not the primary user of this book, but my wife does seem to love it.

The book gives a good overview of the Fiesta dinnerware line. It covers the first run of Fiesta and helps identify the vintage pieces from the new. It gives a brief overview of some of the other "Fiesta" lines and its changes up to 1972 when the original production run ended. The price lists given are not representative of the current selling prices which are much lower than what the book states. The book is full of photographs that help identify the pieces, but it does a poor job of representing the true colors of Fiesta.

This Fiesta book is great for new collectors and can be of great help to older collectors. It has great color pictures and fiesta color changes during the years as well as a great review of "fake Fiesta" items. Its not a "know all" book. But this is one of the best I've used in many years.

Good book. I thought I knew a lot about Fiesta, but this definitely had great pictures, good identification and age information

Just received the book and really find it to be useful. I especially appreciate the many colored pictures of the different fiesta pieces. It is well organized.

There aren't a lot out there, but this book is a welcome addition to another book I have on Fiesta Ware. I love the clear identification guide to the types of pieces. The color guide is great and very helpful in trying to identify what I have.

Great photos and good descriptions, although they never explain the easy to find scale. Value seems to be off but comparable to what you'd see at antique stores. For actual selling price I recommend the eBay sold listings.

Very good reference book for vintage fiesta ware. Met all my expectations. Delivery time was excellent. Condition of book was also excellent. Have really enjoyed this book!
