Great travel guide

Decent guide for Costa Rica surf from a surfer mindset on a budget. I would recommend a Lonely Planet guide to use with this guide. Both together will cover almost everything you will need to know on how to survive with limited funds.

Me and four mates are travelling through central America on a surf trip, this book was the most helpful as we based our next destination on what we read about the surf spot. Really helpful with twice as much info than any other surf guide book we were using.

Just bought this for a surf trip to Tamarindo area, it is VERY outdated..might have been more helpful

10 years ago.

I bought the book and the kindle edition prior to my trip to CR. They are very informative with great locations on where to stay, where to eat and most importantly, where to surf. If you're going to CR to surf, this is a must read. I'd highly recommend it to anyone who's going to CR.

Update from the old one. Good resource

I bought this book for my first surf adventure to Costa Rica. It definitely had most of the surf spots covered with basic info on how to get there, best conditions, etc -

Overall does a good job of local tips, breaking down many breaks, etc... Would like more detail on more breaks, and many of the detailed breaks are detailed on the internet. Still best guide I've found and worth buying.
