My Sunflower: Watch Me Bloom, From Seed To Sunflower, A Pop-up Book (Grow With Me!)

Synopsis

Learn how a seed turns into a sunflower through amazing 3-D pop-ups! My Sunflower explores the metamorphosis of the sunflower--from a tiny seed to a gigantic, beautiful flower--through colorful, pop-up illustrations and spreads. Children learn about the stages of a sunflower's life and the biology of plant growth, from planting the seed and watering the sprout to watching the bud bloom into beautiful petals. Each spread opens and lifts into a striking, colorful paper-engineered 3-D pop-up that showcases each specific stage of the sunflower's growing cycle. My Sunflower introduces young children to the basics of gardening and farming, instilling a love and awe of nature that will fuel their curiosity for many years to come.

"A sunny alternative when it's impractical to go outside and watch real flowers pop up - Kirkus Reviews

Martin Taylor studied Graphic Information Design at Falmouth and is a self-taught paper engineer. After working as paper engineer and designer at Walker Books, where he designed Where's Wally, Maisy, Guess How Much I Love You, and many others, he launched Caterpillar Books with his award-winning Peekaboo Pop-up Series. He went on to create the million-selling, award-winning Ten Wiggly Wiggly Caterpillars and subsequent series, the Adventure Pop-ups, as well as many more successful titles and series. When he's not creating books, paper sculptures, and pop-up cards, Martin enjoys spending time above and below the ocean waves surfing, wakeboarding, scuba diving, and freediving. Mar Ferrero studied Fine Arts in Madrid. She first worked in animation but soon became a children's illustrator. Some of her clients include Ed. Edelvives, Ed. Santillana, Ed. SM, Ed. Bruno, Ed. Siruela, Ed. Alba, Blanco y Negro, APM, INJUVE, Guia del Nino magazine, Hachette, Bayard, Fundacion Mapfre, and Mirarte. She has also written and illustrated two children's picture books: Lo mejor del mundo, Ed. Pearson and Lo que no vio Caperucita roja, de. Edelvives. She has showcased her paintings in several exhibitions around the world. She lives in the mountains near Madrid with her family and animals: nine hens, one rooster, one very big dog, six fish, and lots of spiders in the walls and ceilings.

We're big fans of pop-up books at our house, this one is pretty good. A few of the pages are smaller but the ones that are big are great, our 2 year old and 10 month old like it!

I've seen the book before and found it interesting and fun for younger children. My younger girl loves pop-up and interactive kind of book, so this is currently her favourite book after another pop-up book that features trucks.

Excellent visual, clear explanations, fascinating for kids.

PERFECT!

The children enjoyed the book

I love the simple story line with incredible pop ups and minimal words on every page. The added details on the back folio are like a whole other book for older children. It's wonderfully interesting and educational. Despite the simple story line, I can see why it rates ages 4+. While the story is simple enough for my 18 month old, I have to keep the book out of reach because he'd tear it apart in seconds. This pop-up book is just too tempting for tiny hands to grab. It would be wonderful for story times where children look but don't touch.

touch. We'll keep it up on a high shelf for now and read it with careful supervision.

My 5 1/2 year old daughter was DELIGHTED with this vibrant pop-up book that covers the sunflower life cycle from seed to sunflower in full bloom. The first night that we read it together, she SLEPT with it! She recently brought it for a presentation at school, and her teacher read it to the students during their lunch break. Boy and girls alike were completely enamored with the beautiful pop-ups at the turn of each page. I highly recommend this lovely read!

This is a fantastic pop up book illustrating the life cycle of a Sunflower. My girls have enjoyed reading and rereading this book. Beautiful illustrations, variety of "pop-ups" and great for teaching seed to plant. As with any pop-up, you may want to read along with your child (depending on age) and how long you would like the book to last. This book is very inviting for young gardeners.
