Customer Reviews

These women are so beautiful!!!!

Strong, sexy, rather than super-heroines with sweet derrieres, what else could one want?

Stories range from good to pretty good, some humor. But, seriously, Milo Manera drawing the X-Women; how can any red-blooded, heterosexual male resist? Great idea, Marvel and thanks, Milo !!!

X-Women is an odd collection of comics to say the least. The main story is an odd tale from longtime X-Men writer Chris Claremont as he guides some of the female mutants of the X-Men on a strange adventure as they try to vacation. Milo Manara does a fine job leading the art team on this story even if there's quite a bit of cheesecake and titillation. But the rest of the book simply isn't at that level of quality. There is a fun story involving Dazzler, a dark tale featuring X-23 and a forgettable Cloak and Dagger story. Outside the Dazzler story which offers a nice blend of action with character development, these other additions do little for the book. If you can find this collection of comics at a good price, it's worth picking up but it's not a must have by any means, even for X-Men fans.
