Customer Reviews

In 2000, Teach for America alumnus and Yale graduate Zeke Vanderhoek had a radical idea: students learn better from better teachers. His vision of what test prep could be if written and taught by great educators led him to start Manhattan Prep. Since we began, Manhattan Prep has grown from a boutique tutoring company to one of the world's leading test prep providers, offering GMAT, GRE, LSAT, ACT, and SAT courses and tutoring worldwide. We believe test prep should be real education. From our instructors to our materials, we work to teach you the skills you'll need to succeed on the test, in school, and beyond.

I have all the P.S. bibles, workbooks, and training books but they all had explanations that were really hard to grasp. This book is awesome! It breaks things down to an easier level, and provides a lot of really good tips! I would definitely suggest this for anyone just starting to study for the exam but who have had trouble with the games section, it's in between the basic somewhat iffy kap. books and the advanced understanding of p.s. books.

All were great buys!

This books is invaluable. It takes you on a step-by-step approach, first with easy examples with easy to understand explanations. Each type of game is discussed and their variations. The beginning chapters reviews conditional logic, which is the foundation of the games. Once you gain mastery in an each area, they provide actual tests from a previous LSATs that pertains to the section you just mastered, all with explanations. (You can also follow up each game with the various online explanations from other companies on YouTube.). Manhattan Prep also has an online guide which I have not used yet. But the book has been invaluable for me, who is not paying for one of those expensive prep courses.
