"This Star Wars history book should be in every classroom" – IGN.com

Author Pablo Hidalgo is a creative executive within the Lucasfilm Story Group, a resident Star Wars authority who helps ensure consistency across a wide array of Star Wars projects. He has written several DK titles including most recently the bestselling Star Wars: The Force Awakens The Visual Dictionary. He lives with his wife in San Francisco, California.

About time they updated this! This is the most informative book on Star Wars (and I mean everything involved) I've read. I had the original, and now this version is even better. If it were me, rather than a new book every few years, I'd just do an additional volume ever two years, but this is well worth owning and reading. I just wish they'd come out with a Kindle edition!

I bought this for my brother for Christmas and liked it enough before I wrapped it that I went ahead and bought a copy for me. Wonderful Star Wars chronology!

I loved the concept for this book, and it was very well done. I was pleased that equal time and info was put into the in-between years, and it wasn't all about 1977, '80, '83...etc. Good balance between news events, pop culture and the development of the films.

Got this as a gift for my husband. He is a huge Star Wars fan, mostly of the original trilogy but he also grew up reading novels in the expanded universe (and is still upset they aren't cannon, especially the Thrawn trilogy). Definitely a great buy for adult fans of the franchise.

Thanks.

Great Book!

Excellent book

Great book. Thanks!
