Religions Of The West Today

Synopsis

Ideal for courses in Western religions, Religions of the West Today, Third Edition, covers the same material contained in the authors' longer textbook, World Religions Today, Fifth Edition. Revealing the significance of religion in contemporary life, it explores Judaism, Christianity, Islam, indigenous religions, and new religions as dynamic, ongoing forces in the lives of individuals and in the collective experience of modern societies. This unique volume accomplishes two goals: it connects today's religions to their classical beliefs and practices and focuses on how these religions have both radically changed the modern world and been changed by it. The book is enhanced by numerous pedagogical aids--text boxes, timelines, maps, illustrations, discussion questions, a comprehensive glossary of key terms, and suggestions for further reading--and more than 100 photographs. For a wealth of additional teaching and study resources, visit the book's Companion Website. Also available to serve your course needs: World Religions Today, Fifth Edition: 978-0-19-999959-0 Religions of Asia Today, Third Edition: 978-0-19-999964-4

John L. Esposito is University Professor, Professor of Religion and International Affairs, Professor of Islamic Studies, and Founding Director of the Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding at Georgetown University. Darrell J. Fasching is Professor of Religious Studies at the University of South Florida. Todd T. Lewis is Professor of World Religions at the College of the Holy Cross.

This was used for a religious studies class at a university. I have a better understanding of the Jewish and Islam faiths because of it (I'm a Roman Catholic). The book shows how the three religions came into being and the circumstances that allowed them to grow up to the current time period.
