15 Self-guided Tours. 30 Maps. One Great Trip. At last, a travel guide that tells you how to see the best of everything—in the smartest, most time-efficient way. The best of Hong Kong in one, two, or three days Thematic tours for every interest, schedule, and taste Walking tours of the city's best-loved neighborhoods Hundreds of evocative color photos Bulleted maps that show you how to get from place to place Hotels, restaurants, shopping, and nightlife for all budgets A tear-resistant foldout map—enclosed in a handy plastic wallet you can also use for tickets and souvenirs

Just what I needed. It is compact and comes with a transit map on inside flap. A map on inside flyleaf. The back has the plastic pocket that snaps closed and contains a fold out map that is laminated. It still had the original receipt where the buyer bought it at B&N for almost $22. So I got a great deal.

Complete, clear and wonderful graphics for this well known holiday or business destination. Clearly written.

Very good guide. The restaurants aren't 100% up to date, but then again they do then to come and go. Everything else is good (things to see, tips, hotels, tours) worth the money. The maps also proved useful.

Overall I have to rate this a 3 star based on the poor maps provided in the guidebook. It had nice daily tours outlined and listed good sites to visit. You could pick and choose based on your interest. The description of the sites were concise. The phrase book was useful. However, the maps made it difficult to locate the sites efficiently. Many times the names of all the side streets were not listed so you could not locate the sites efficiently or to locate your location relative to the site, without pulling out the fold out map. The fold out map did not even include the Mongkok area. I probably would not have bought this book if I had a chance to look at the maps (but it had the most recent update relative to the other pocket book guides).

Looking forward to using this!
