HORSES: OUT OF THE STARTING GATE

Synopsis

A Bible Study on Revelation Six: HORSES OUT OF THE STARTING GATE is a non-fiction book related to COMES THE PALE HORSE--a fiction as to how this could play out in real life, by Summer Lee.. I used the same research for both. This is a Bible Study. The other is [fiction based on fact]. This is a brief Bible study of end times when the tribulation comes on the scene. It will all begin with four horsemen coming from heaven bringing judgment. The first sign will present a leader trying to bring peace without the proper weapons. The second shows war, the third is famine and starvation. The fourth is just maximum death. Our only true escape is to receive Christ as Savior and Lord. Anyone who reads the Book of Revelation will take this message seriously. The greatest vision ever begins with four horses right out of the starting gate as an end time event. Their riders are called The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse. I wonder, "What are they all about?" The world as we know it will pass away. The actions of the men on the horses are a visual picture of how the end will come. Signs appear in the sky from time to time to remind us that the end is near. Things are changing. In Revelation one, Jesus appeared to John the apostle. He informed him that he was receiving some major news about the future. In chapters 2 and 3, John received messages for the seven mainline churches in his day. They were prophetic for the church age. We now know the message described church ages from then until now. Seven to be exact. In Revelation 5, we are told that when the Lamb opened the scroll, it caused great excitement. The saints and angels sang praises to the Lord, called the Lamb of God. We know that the Lamb is Jesus, because John the Baptist introduced Jesus Christ to Israel as "The Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world." The Bible says that there will be wars, famines, earthquakes, persecution, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken. "The sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn." Matthew 24:30. To learn that the long awaited Messiah was Jesus all along will cause some Jews to weep when they see his scars in his hands, feet and side. They will feel remorse, but it will be a glorious day for those looking for him. All those born-again will be there following Jesus on white horses. (That is all who know they were born as sinners, believed Jesus took the punishment for those sins, and ask Him to forgive them) Those will come from heaven with Jesus on their own horses. Apostle John said, "Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, and everyone else, both slave and free, hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains." They called to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can withstand it?" A scene like this causes my heart to ache for how God feels. He gave his Son to keep us from such an outpouring of wrath. We who love him do not like to see people reject the Lord to this extent. He created man and offered him so much if they would just trust and obey him. But the pride of man caused them to turn away from God, and the Book of Revelation clearly gives the end results. The Bible says that it is not God's will that any should perish. It is our sins that separate us from God. At this point Jesus is still referred to as a Lamb. But we see a side of the Lord that was not apparent when he was on earth or on the cross. He chose to be meek and lowly then, but time will run out for His widespread mercy. The Wrath of the Lamb is coming. I do not ever want to experience the Wrath of the Lamb. That is a good reason to cling to Jesus. Considering what Jesus did to pay for our sin, He deserves to be angry.

Customer Reviews

I have a new understanding, and appreciation for "Heaven's Horses"! The author takes the reader through the Bible, to take a look at horses. Horses??!!The author opened her home to neighborhood children to come listen to Bible stories. One day a young neighborhood boy who attended her Bible class asked her, "What do you know about the four horsemen of the apocalypse?" She replied, "Nothing. But I'm willing to learn." Thus began her Bible study of "Heaven's Horses". I almost didn't buy this book. I already knew about the horsemen of the apocalypse. But, I bought it anyway. And boy, am I glad I did! I didn't know nearly as much as I thought I did. The author looks back into the Old Testament to see if similar horses were mentioned. They were; in Zechariah chapters one and six. Here, in Zechariah, horses "patrol the earth". Interesting. The author continually pursues the horses of Revelation and compares them to the horses in Zechariah. In the Old Testament Conquest (white) goes west; War (red) goes east; Famine (black) goes North; and Death (pale) goes south. The author encourages the reader do their own research, so to make your own interpretation.
