Last Of The Gentlemen (An Echo Ridge Romance)

Synopsis

Despite the hardships she's faced, Emma Turner, is determined to make a good life for her three children. Working nights and struggling through life doesn't leave much time for romance, which is just fine as far as Emma is concerned. But when her son's good-looking lacrosse coach takes an interest in her children, Emma has to fight off the smolder in her stomach and banish her daydreams. This school-girl crush needs to end before she embarrasses her son and herself. If only she could tell that to her heart.

Customer Reviews

Great book, I love clean romances, it's all about kissing. You can't help but to keep cheering them on, hoping things will work out. When there's chemistry between two people, they're the one for you. I will read everything of Camilla Checketts I can find. She writes a really romantic story, but keeps it clean. Great job.

I fell in love with Chayton and Emma! I loved how we get to see Emma's struggle and resistance to love...then get to watch her fall in love. Checketts is one of my favorite authors and is a master at the love story! Don't miss it!

I loved this tender story and how dedicated Emma was to taking care of her kids. Chayton and Emma were great together! I found myself rooting for them as they fell in love. It's the kind of book I love reading over and over again!

I loved this book. Super cute! Made me smile. The characters were very well developed and Loved the family expect of this book. Only thing was I didn't want it to end

It's been a ruff road for Emma and she is busy just trying to provide for her three kids. What could it hurt to dream about her sons handsome lacrosse coach? She's too old and warn out for anything else... or is she?

This is a really sweet story about a mom who falls for her son's coach. The kids are cute and definitely fun to read about. There's not a lot of angst but just a sweet couple who finds their HEA

Great book. Fun read. Clean romance.
