Customer Reviews

Poor Big Bear believes his sneezes cause the leaves to fall from the trees, the apples to fall to the ground, the sleeping geese to fly from a freezing pond. It is by coincidence the wind blows so hard at the time Big Bear sneezes that it is the cause of what Big Bear thinks he is causing. The wind tries to convince Big Bear that he is not responsible for what happens when he sneezes. As the beautiful rhyming story progresses, the wind is able to convince Big Bear he is not at fault. The illustrations are beautiful, the story simple. You will love to read this book to your child.

Such a cute story. We are Big Bear fans. We love the sleep book and this one is equally wonderful. The art in the book is just as great as the story. We reach for this book often and my children love it.

A beautiful fall story. My kids enjoyed learning about the leaves and fruits. When its fall and what happens to let us know its fall.

Story is great, illustrations are epic. Unfortunately Kindle has not included options to increase the font and in this case the font is microscopic which really ruins the experience.

A wonderful book, grandson loves it.

Great book. My kids giggle and fake sneeze every time we read it.

My three year old great granddaughter love this book. I have to read it to her every time she stays overnight with me at least once if not twice.

Love this series of books! Fabulous illustrations, and wonderful story line. Highly recommend these!
