A graduate of Harvard Law School, Erwin Chemerinsky is the founding dean and distinguished professor of law and the Raymond Pryke Professor of First Amendment Law at the University of California, Irvine School of Law, with a joint appointment in political science. He lives in Irvine.

I have used Chemerinsky's Constitutional law books for both Constitutional classes in law school and I always find them helpful in understanding the rule. I used this student treatise to help with the recommended reading for the class and it helps you to understand the history behind the rules created, lays out the holding of the Court and goes in depth with the subjects covered. The only thing I would recommend is that you purchase a hard cover instead of the Kindle version because it's easier to highlight the rules and it would be quicker when trying to put together an outline.

a very good book. It explains the concept very well.

Its a great book!
