She sits on 11 editorial review boards and numerous international panels. She teaches in executive programs in Latin America, Central America, the Caribbean region, Asia, and the United States. She is Department Editor for the Journal of International Business Studies

The concepts were well explained, but I did not like the layout of the chapters. At times it was difficult to follow because the pages are divided down the center with diagrams offsetting the flow. I did enjoy reading the book and managed to learn the material.

Great book and quick delivery thanks a lot

excellent condition

Great Class and Good Material

Great

This is the exact book I needed for class. No mistakes and no mess ups. I would return for future purchase.

I purchased this book as a required reading item for my organizational behavior class. It is pretty informative on behavior theories.
