Camilla Schmidt Rasmussen has been an artist and a maker since childhood--drawing, painting, sewing, and embroidering--but learning to crochet as an adult unlocked the door to a whole new world. Designing and creating with yarn was so fascinating that for a few years after Camilla learned to crochet, she gave her family and friends only gifts that she crocheted herself. She finds inspiration everywhere--in her neighborhood, in architecture, in unusual color combinations--and her curiosity often leads her in new directions, always with pride of craftsmanship as her guide. Camilla lives in Aarhus, Denmark, where she owns Yarnfreak, a yarn and gift shop. Visit her online at www.yarnfreak.dk. Sofie Grangaard learned to knit and crochet at age 4. She's a passionate about yarn and dedicated to improving her skills and knowledge, which she loves to share with others. She lives in Knebel, Denmark.
