I use this book to play gospel songs at the nursing home. The residents know the songs and we all enjoy playing and singing them. I would recommend this book.

The music is the same as the old hymn book I have. The only song that is written differently is "What a Friend I have in Jesus."

Wonderful songs - good variety. Easy playing

Given as a gift to my mother. She found it easy to read and the songs old standards she enjoyed playing.

I like the selections in this volume and the ease to follow along singing and playing. Not as easy to turn pages and keep them flat in this format however, since many of the songs continue onto a third page.

Bought this book for "Amazing Grace". A beautiful rendition! It was played for a Christmas program. The songs are easy with uncomplicated left hand accompaniment.

I love this!! Easy to play and easy to read.

It is "very easy" piano--some songs almost too easy to even be recognized. Most are good though and I have played it easily.
