Customer Reviews

PreSchool-K. This concept book vibrates with bright colors, happy thoughts, and joie de vivre. Beginning with "I am Awesome, Brave, and Cheerful," it goes on to present 20 other ways to feel good about oneself, concluding with "Yawn...I need a good night's sleep so tomorrow...I can Zoom on!" Carlson's cheerful pig, frog, and their friends will delight youngsters as they are reassured about their own emerging personalities. All are shown in large, uncluttered illustrations as they engage in a variety of activities, from a mouse and a pig blasting off in a rocket for "I have big Dreams," to a rabbit banging on a pot for "And sometimes, I'm Noisy!" A storytime natural. Virginia Opocensky, formerly at Lincoln City Libraries, NE

Ages 4⁺-6. The self-confident little pig of I Like Me (1994) returns with a group of friends. They take a spirited journey through the alphabet during which they proclaim that they are awesome, brave, and cheerful, and later that they are good at sharing and that they eat all their vegetables. The alphabet connection is a little strained, but kids will enjoy this more for the exuberant pictures. Along with the vivacious pig, a mouse, a frog, and other animal friends raise their self-esteem and send positive messages. Carlson has a talent for producing art that looks deceptively simple, and that is especially true here. Actually, each page is meticulously designed, brightly colored, and executed to achieve a sense of motion and motivation. It's hard to be down around a book this up. I chose this book because the children sign up to take I Like Me home. I was not surprised to see them making the title their own as an expression after successfully tossing 6 beanbags in the hat or after a high 5...The books I buy are added to the classroom copies or replace a worn tattered classroom copy. I want them to READ!

My sons school was charging a fortune to replace this book however I purchased this book through this sell and receive it with in 39 hr with standard mail. In condition that was posted. Excellent packaging and far less then the schools library. In all 5 Stars experience in my book. Its seller like this one that make look great. Thank you for your time.

They really enjoyed the book, and the pictures. It is better suited to per-k or early Kindergarten but the kids liked it and I was able to do some simple hands on writing prompts I made to go with it. Overall a success!

I honestly don't know what it is about this book, but my 3 yr old chooses it all the time. It just had one short sentence for each letter? So it is a quick read. At the end the pig is a superhero who "zooms on" and my daughter just loves that!

Nancy Carlson is a great author and read her books to my first grade class so they could see what positive things are in the books.

This book is so adorable, my nephew loved it. I would recommend any of her books for kids of any age. The pictures are great too.

Good book

It's okay
