Customer Reviews

Redleaf Press is a leading nonprofit publisher of exceptional curriculum, management, and business resources for early childhood professionals.

Awesome

This is a very simple reference and we have placed it in our shelter in place rooms as well as our classrooms. I want my staff to have ready reference in case of an emergency.

I am an RN who was doing a church camp and this was taken with me to be used as a handy resource. I love that it is organized and concise with its directions without a lot of pictures and colors...it tells you exactly what to do and in clear numbered steps.
