I'm going to use this little sticker book for my summer projects with my three granddaughters ages 6, 6 and 3. I babysit them at least once a week after school and a few summers ago I realized that just reading to them, letting them watch selected tv, using chalk on the sidewalk, playing outside, etc. was not the most productive use of the summer with no preschool available. So I started bringing "Projects" for them to do, and they LOVED it! I wanted the summer to be fun for them, but also a time to learn new things in fun ways. We made a dragonfly mobile to keep the monsters away at night (still working and hanging in the corner of the room!), painted, worked puzzles of increasing difficulty, etc. This summer I've decided to share a love of mine I've had since I was 5: Egypt! I have several books to use, go through, make projects from and this book with help teach them with the fun of stickers. They love stickers, so I know they'll love it! We may use it on the Nile River project and back the stickers with light poster board cut to fit or in a book each girl makes for "Graduation". Plus...it's a Dover Book, and they are always great and well done. This one is no exception!

Kids enjoyed them.

We received the stickers and they worked perfect in his project. They were just the right size to fit in the foil pan where we grew grass and made a miniature Egypt. It was the best project in the entire class. He's in a combo 1st and 2nd grade class and all the products we buy from for school puts him on top. Thank you for the great prices and wonderful products and service.

Great stickers for making mini scenes of "Life in Ancient Egypt." A small co-op class used these and each book made about 2-3 such scenes, depending on how complex the students wanted to be. Lots of fun.

These are great excellent product: I got this for my Grand Daughter and she loved them, I you need a little skill to fill them in as there are many small details.

This book is really tiny, I don't know what I expected for the low price. It will keep my 5 year old busy while her brothers do more in depth study of Egypt.

For the price, Dover's little sticker books can't be beat. The stickers have an undeniable retro charm and the wide range of very unusual and specific topics are really charming. They're perfect for inspiring a child to dream beyond the branded glitter stickers lined up in stores like Walmart.
