Mommy Wears A Green T-Shirt (The Coralee Chronicles Book 3)

Synopsis

I nodded. It was all becoming real right then, and fear crawled over me. I couldn't do this. I was the last person who should ever be a mom. Babies were fragile, and I was a Â| a Â| klutz. Forgetful. Undependable. I'd do something wrong, and I couldn't do something wrong with a baby. Tears snatched at my eyes, bubbling up, and my lip trembled. "I can't do this," I said. His eyes grew soft. "Sure, you can. You have me, you know."-----Coralee Avery is having a baby, but the thought scares her to death. If not for Roman, her adoring husband, she'd fall apart. Yet as time goes by and their future together becomes more real, the dynamic changes, and it could be that she's the stronger one and he needs her more than she ever thought possible. A lighthearted, loving look at first parenthood by best-selling author, SUZANNE D. WILLIAMS.

Customer Reviews

So loved this book. Got excited when I saw it had finally come out! It even made me laugh out loud!

MOMMY WEARS A GREEN T- SHIRT. by Suzanne D Williams. Coralee is babbling at Roman, "you did this to me". and your cologne. Once again,we have another delightful story of Coralee and Roman. He tells her, it's not going to go away, and she replies, she was hoping it would. Coralee tells her brother, and his reply was not what she wanted to hear either. This also changes Spenser. A delightful story, as was the set of three of "Coralee Chronicles. " Suzanne's books are always enjoyable, this was funny, and one you will remember reading. Given ARC for my voluntary review and my honest opinion.

The best book, with the best ending, for the best series!This book was awesome and im going to read the whole series once again.
