A History Of US: Making Thirteen Colonies: 1600-1740 A History Of US Book Two

Synopsis

Recommended by the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy as an exemplary informational text. All kinds of people are coming to America. If you're European, you come in search of freedom or riches. If you're African, you come in chains. And what about the Indians, what is happening to them? Soon with the influx of so many people, thirteen unique colonies are born, each with its own story. Meet Pocahontas and John Smith in Jamestown. Join William Penn and the Quakers in Pennsylvania. Sit with the judges at the Salem witch trials. Hike over the mountains with Daniel Boone. And let Ben Franklin give you some salty advice in his Poor Richard's Almanac in this remarkable journey through the dynamic creation of what one day becomes the United States.

Customer Reviews

"[An] exciting series... Ms. Hakim braids multiple narratives together to bring alive material long dead to children's imaginations."--The New York Times Book Review"Joy Hakim didn't rewrite history. But she did make it a whole lot more fun to read."--Education Week"Readers young and old will find themselves amused, amazed, and engrossed by this searching, opinionated survey. In every sense a fresh look at our history." --Kirkus Reviews"Merits every accolade, starting with the most personal: I couldn't put it down."--Washington Post Book World"The liveliest, most realistic, most well-received American history series ever written for children."--Los Angeles Times"A thorough and accurate narrative of our nation's history."--The Philadelphia Inquirer"I think this is the best American history written for young people that I have ever seen."--David Herbert Donald, Harvard University; Pulitzer prize-winning author of Lincoln"When master storyteller Joy Hakim wields her pen, you're in for a breathtaking adventure."--Teaching K-8"An attention to detail and drama alike make these recommended choices for not only readers ages 8-13 but for entire families."--Children's Bookwatch"Absorbing, real and even fun to read."--Voice of Youth Advocates"Books of real substance that speak directly to kids."--Jean Fritz, author of Shhh, We're Writing the Constitution"One of the best nonfiction series of the decade. Impossible to put down."--School Library Journal

Joy Hakim, a former teacher, editor, and writer won the prestigious James Michener Prize for her series, A History of US, which has sold over 4 million copies nationwide. A graduate of Smith College and Goucher College she spent years teaching students from elementary school up to the college level. She also served as an Associate Editor at Norfolk's Virginian-Pilot, and was an Assistant Editor at McGraw-Hill's World News.

Breaking the textbook mold, "A History of US" contains none of the intimidation that comes with behemoth texts. It tells the tale of America in 10 user-friendly, small, illustrated books written in a personal tone, as if the author were a storyteller. (An 11th source book, with original documents, is also available.) In this volume, Hakim relates how the American continent, long isolated from the rest of the world, was rediscovered, this time by Europeans. Some came in search of freedom, some came with the hope of riches. They sometimes brought Africans, in chains. As to the Native Americans, they faced disease and competition from these newcomers. Read "Making Thirteen Colonies" to learn more. Meet Pocahontas and John Smith in Jamestown. Join William Penn and the Quakers of Pennsylvania. Sit with the judges at the Salem witch trials. Hike over the mountains with Daniel Boone. And read what Ben Franklin has to say in "Poor Richard's Almanack". The dynamic interaction of all these diverse peoples created a new kind of nation, one based on the idea that all people deserve equal treatment.

I was very disappointed that all the pictures, captions and side notes in the original book were not included in the Kindle version. There should be some notification so that the purchaser is aware prior to purchase. I feel that my child is missing vital information by not having these included.

I can't wait to crack this book open! The first book is awesome, with tons of interesting information. A recent chapter from Book One taught my 9-year-old and I that the word Missouri (as in the river and the state we live in) means "men in big canoes" and that Sierra Nevada means "mountain range". These books are chock-full of fun facts, fascinating pictures, and engaging history. Perfect for this homeschooling family!

My daughter found this more interesting than other history text books. She didn't love it, but she did like it. She liked the pictures that went with the text and the pronunciation guides for the names. We basically have used this as a jumping off point for more in depth studies using other materials.

Good

Joy Hakim's books are some of the finest history books I have ever read. The format is easy to read. There are lots of graphics and the attention to detail is superb. I have learned so much history on top of the slim layer that is taught in school and college. Excellent investment! Highly recommend!

Great book for homeschooling USA history. goes more in depth than typical educational books. It was referred to me by a former homeschooling teacher. I bought a used book and it was a little dog-eared and had some scribbling on pages but who cares! I would buy used books again and again.

I can't say enough great things about this series. If you want ACCURATE history (not the whole

"Columbus was the first to discover America" nonsense) that is a fun and intelligent read and will make your children love and understand history, buy this series.
