Customer Reviews

I really enjoy playing his music. however the binding of the book makes it impossible to play on the piano. the pages keep flipping backwards or forward (depending on where in the book you are)..it should really be a spiral bound book. i have to photo copy each page to make it playable. other than that, great music

Excellent collection. The selections are not pieces that I have heard before, but they are in the movie theme genre and have a great deal of emotion to them. They are reasonably easy to play for an intermediate piano player.

This is lovely music and much of it sounds equally pleasing when played on the harp. Many of the pieces can even be played on a large lever harp without too much lever flipping. Makes me wonder if Mr. Einaudi has written specifically for the harp.....

Bought it as my 26th birthday gift for myself. I am an intermediate player but the music is so moving it urges you to learn and move forward. Lovely collection of pieces and I believe arranged according to difficulty. The only downside is the binding of the book. I wish the book was spirally bound ,would make turning pages a lot easier.

These pieces are like playing Hanon exercises with some musicality. I am not a fan of new age music in general, but I find the Einaudi compositions very meditative and satisfying. There is enough subtlety and variation to be challenging while not difficult. Some review described them as sounding more difficult than they are to play and I think this is an accurate description.

Amazing book of music. My instructor is classically trained, and plays these pieces for her groups. I loved the music so much that I purchased also, as an intermediate student. I have some challenges as I move forward, but the music flows through you.

Wonderful book for any piano player

Wonderful music! I gave to my sister as a gift and she's loving it!
